

GNATS – Continuity

PDG Dick Elixman and PDG Pam Russell
October 5, 2009

- ### Agenda
- What does continuity mean?
 - Why should we care about continuity?
 - What resources are available to stimulate continuity?
 - I don't have it! What can I do?
 - I do have it! How can I keep it going?

- ### What Does Continuity Mean?
- At the District Level
 - The PDGs through the DGND
 - Committee Chairs
 - At the Club Level
 - Club Presidents
 - Club Committee Chairs

- ### Why Should I Care?
- Benefits
 - Strengthens the leadership
 - Strengthens the clubs
 - Creates a knowledge base for others to draw from
 - Avoids costly mistakes
 - Strengthens the district
 - Builds good will and better friendships

- ### Resources Available
- District
 - PDGs
 - Administrator or paid staff
 - Websites and other historical documents
 - Zone
 - Instructors, Classmates, Directors
 - Institutes and websites
 - RI Staff
 - Club and District Support

- ### I don't have it!
- Support the DG and DGE (even if you disagree)
 - Build a close relationship with the DGND
 - You should be their mentor and their new BFF (best friends forever)
 - Be a better listener than a talker
 - Encourage monthly meetings
 - Some (not all!) PDGs, DG, DGE, DGN, DGND
 - Face to face better than online
 - Online better than nothing if geography is huge
 - Ensure everyone has time on the agenda
